BALANCE DUE: Fees for all students should be paid before arrival. While payments will be accepted at check-in, those who have paid their entire balance before arrival will enjoy a quicker and easier check-in.

STUDENTS SHOULD BRING: In addition to items students will need for their overnight stay in Athens, each student should bring:

- Instruments
- All necessary accessories (reeds, mouthpieces, neck straps)
- Percussionists should bring sticks and mallets only.
- Folding music stand with his/her name clearly marked.
- Pencils
- Concert Attire (see FINAL CONCERTS below)

ARRIVAL: Directors and students should arrive at the School of Music on Thursday, December 8th between 2:00 and 6:30 PM. Later arrivals will likely encounter longer waits for auditions. Students from within a 50-mile radius are strongly encouraged to arrive as close to 2:00 PM as possible. Directions will be available at the end of this document and at the MidFest website.

Car and van parking will be available at the Performing Arts Center (PAC) Deck near the School of Music. Students arriving by bus or any other vehicles (taller than 6' 8") that cannot be parked in the parking deck must be dropped off at the Performing Arts Center loop. See BUS PARKING below for details. Please note that PAC activities will prevent MidFest participants from entering the Performing Arts Center building on Thursday afternoon. Those parking in the PAC Deck will be directed to walk around the PAC to the School of Music.

CHECK-IN: Check-in will take place in the band offices on the first floor of the School of Music. Directors should designate a single adult representative (other than the bus driver) to check in all of that school's students. Other adults and students may wait in the 2nd floor lobby during this time. The adult who is checking the group in should have a check (payable to UGA Bands) or credit card for any remaining balance.

Please note that all students from a school must check in together. If a director will not be present, a head chaperone must be assigned. Please send head chaperone phone number and email to Rob Akridge (rakridge@uga.edu). That person will check in all students from that school. Any student who arrives at check-in without the rest of their school will kindly be asked to wait to check in until the remainder of the students from the school arrive. You may NOT substitute students from another school when checking in!

CAR/VAN PARKING: As at many busy university campuses and college towns, parking in Athens and at UGA is rare and expensive. Normally, the UGA Parking Services division offers a Performing Arts Center Deck parking permit for MidFest for $5.00 per day for Thursday and Friday. Permits will be sold as you enter the PAC Parking Deck on Thursday and Friday; permits will not be sold at check-in. Parents may want to wait to purchase the Friday pass until they find out which band their student has been assigned to.

Parking at the Classic Center will be via machines. Credit cards only and rates are: first 30 min. free, $1 per hour ($7 per day max). Directors may choose instead to pay to park on-street in Downtown Athens for Classic Center events at an hourly rate. Receipts are now available for much of the available downtown on-street parking (be careful crossing Thomas Street!).

BUS PARKING: We appreciate that bus transportation is convenient for schools with many attendees. However, our parking situation makes the use of buses inconvenient. Directors are strongly encouraged to use car and light van transportation if at all possible. Buses are permitted to drop students at the turnaround between the Performing Arts Center and School of Music, which is located in Lot E11 on River Road. Buses are also permitted to drop students in the parking lot behind the Foundry Street Ballrooms at the Classic Center. Bus parking is available at the Classic Center lot behind the Foundry Street ballroom at a rate of $20/day. Bus (including mini bus) parking is not permitted on campus between 7:00 AM and 4:00PM on Thursday and Friday.

We strongly recommend parking buses at the Classic Center. If you choose not to use Classic Center parking, after students are dropped off, buses will be directed to the Milledge Avenue Athletic Complex. Directions are at the end of this document. A shuttle will run between the Milledge Avenue Athletic Complex and the School of Music before and after most on-campus events. Should you need a shuttle, call this number 15-30 minutes prior to your desired pickup: 706-542-1505.

AUDITIONS: Students should proceed to warm-up area and then audition rooms immediately following check-in. Students should complete their auditions prior to 7:00 PM in order to attend the 7:30 PM concert in Hodgson Hall. Audition requirements are below.

Winds: Play up to three scales/arpeggios (from the GMEA Middle School All-State requirements) and sight-reading. The audition judge may opt not to hear sight-reading.

Snare Drummers: Sight-read and perform three rudiments:

1. Long Roll
2. Flam Accent
3. Ruff

These rudiments are to be played in an open-close-open or fast-slow-fast rudimental presentation.

Timpanists: Sight-read and perform a simple tuning test.

Keyboard Percussionists: Sight-read and perform three GMEA required scales and arpeggios of your choice.

Strongest consideration will be given to those percussion students who audition on more than one percussion instrument.

Each student who auditions will be given a slip by their judge to indicate that s/he appeared at the audition. This slip will contain a code that will be used by our office to verify that a student auditioned in the event that s/he does not appear on a festival band roster. It is very important that the student or director keep up with this slip and present it to the band office on Friday morning in the event of a problem.

AUDITION RESULTS: Audition result tabulation and festival band assignment will continue deep into the night on Thursday. Results will be emailed to directors early on Friday morning. Additionally, directors may pick up student band assignments and chair order for their individual schools in the Band Hall office on the first floor of the School of Music Friday morning. Once directors have obtained band and chair placement information, they may share it with their students at any time. If any students are not present on the festival band rosters, directors should email (rakridge@uga.edu) or see Rob Akridge in the band office for placement. Directors will need the audition slip that will be handed to students at their audition in order to verify that they auditioned.

FEATURED BAND CONCERTS: The featured band concerts on Thursday and Friday nights will be held in Hodgson Hall at the UGA Performing Arts Center. Students, directors, and chaperones not rehearsing in the Performing Arts Center should all enter the hall through the glass doors of the main lobby. Please note that instruments and instrument cases are not allowed in the seating areas or lobby of the Performing Arts Center under any circumstances.

Admission will be granted to badge-holding students, directors, and chaperones on a first-come-first-served basis. Guests without badges will be asked to wait in a stand-by line until ten minutes before downbeat.

Directors are asked to seat all students from their school together in Hodgson Hall with no seats between students. Non-director chaperones will be issued badges for admission, but schools are encouraged to bring the minimum number of necessary persons into Hodgson Hall. The UGA Fire Marshal will not permit guests to stand during concerts.

DIRECTOR CLINICS: Please plan to attend any or all of these sessions, to be held in Room 200 in the School of Music.

Friday: 10:00 – 11:00 a.m.

UGA Professor of Bassoon, Dr. Amy Pollard
Addressing the Major Problems with Bassoon

Friday: 2:45 – 3:45 p.m.

UGA Professor of Percussion, Tim Adams
Correcting Sound Production Issues from the Podium

INSTRUMENT STORAGE: Between rehearsals, instruments may be returned to your hotel, stored in a vehicle, or stored in the rehearsal venues. Though rehearsal facilities will be locked between rehearsals, the safety of unattended instruments cannot be guaranteed. The University of Georgia and the Classic Center are not responsible for the loss of any unattended belongings.

TRANSPORTATION: Masterclasses are NOT being offered Friday morning therefore there will NOT be a bus shuttle to the first rehearsal.

All student transportation is the responsibility of school directors and chaperones.

When picking up students from the School of Music or Performing Arts Center, students may meet you at your vehicle in the PAC deck or may board your vehicle in the turnaround outside the Performing Arts Center lobby. When picking up students from the Classic Center Foundry Street Ballrooms, please proceed to the surface lot behind the ballrooms. Boarding or exiting vehicles is not permitted on Foundry Street or at the “horseshoe” on Thomas Street in front of the Classic Center main building.

LODGING: As indicated in the initial MidFest announcement, housing is the responsibility of the directors and chaperones. Several Athens hotel properties are listed in the announcement, including many who are offering special discounts to MidFest attendees. Should you have questions concerning the convenience of these properties, please feel free to contact UGA Bands at 706-542-1505. Please consider the festival schedule when planning your hotel check-in and check-out.

DINING: Directors are responsible for student meal arrangements. Athens has a wide variety of dining options at reasonable prices. The Athens Convention and Visitors Bureau and the Athens Downtown Development Authority have been made aware of your visit to our city. Restaurants should be staffed to accommodate your business. You may find lists of Athens restaurants at our website, including many that are within easy walking distance of the Classic Center. Some of the UGA services you may be accustomed to may not be open as normal during MidFest. Specifically, the Village Summit Dining Commons near the School of Music will only be open for a special dining event. If you wish to dine with your students at that dining hall, you should visit their event page to make reservations and purchase tickets. The Red Clay Cafe, the a la carte counter service outlet on the first floor of the Joe Frank Harris Commons, will be available for Lunch on Friday.

FINAL CONCERTS: Call times for Saturday’s final concerts begin at 12:30pm. Concerts take place from 12:30pm to 5:00pm in Hodgson Concert Hall at the Performing Arts Center. Students are strongly encouraged to contact their parents on Friday to let them know of their ensemble placement and their concert time. Due to safety concerns we are unable to post ensemble placements online.

For the final concert, concert black for the students is preferred (black tuxedo with black tie for gentlemen, black dress or business suit for ladies). If this is unavailable, students should dress for their final concerts as they would for a concert at their home school. Jeans, T-Shirts, hats, tennis shoes, and any other garments that draw undue attention to one’s self are not appropriate for the final concert, and students wearing these may not be allowed to perform.

Students may attend the concerts of other festival bands as their schedule allows. However, instruments and instrument cases are not allowed in Hodgson Hall or the Performing Arts Center lobby. Because of the size of the festival and limited seating availability in Hodgson Hall, parents are asked to attend only those concerts in which their children are performing.

FESTIVAL RULES: We want everyone who attends MidFest to have an enjoyable educational experience. To that end, the following rules will apply throughout the festival, on campus, and at the Classic Center. Please share these with all who will attend:

- Students may not smoke, drink, or be under the influence of drugs.
- Students must respect the property of festival students, staff, the University of Georgia, and the Classic Center.
 - Instruments and instrument cases may not be brought into the Performing Arts Center lobby or seating area.
 - Students must dispose of trash appropriately in all facilities, including restrooms.
 - Students will sit appropriately during events and avoid placing feet on walls, seats, or stage from the seating area.
 - Students will not bring food or drink into classroom, rehearsal, or performance areas.
- Students will treat others with respect, will use appropriate language, and will follow the instructions of festival staff.
- All concert attendees will silence mobile phones during attendance at all festival events.
- Students will arrive on-time to all festival events, and will remain attentive throughout. Students may not leave festival events unless they are under the supervision of a director or chaperone from their school.

"NO-SHOWS": School representatives who have registered students for MidFest and subsequently cannot attend, for whatever reason, should contact our office immediately by email for a refund. "No shows" preclude others from attending. "No shows" will be billed for outstanding fees and will not be permitted to register or attend MidFest in the future until all fees have been paid. Thank you in advance for your cooperation and understanding.

CANCELLATIONS: Cancelling after the deadline will forfeit their festival payment.

WEATHER EVENT: No one can predict poor weather however, due to administration fees, we are only able to refund half of the registration fees. Again, thank you for your understanding.

SCHEDULE: A detailed schedule will be updated on the MidFest website as it develops. You will receive a final copy at check-in.
